"Sunshine" Feat. MC Anon is the latest single from award-winning Queensland songwriter/producer Zia.

Hailing from Queensland's Sunshine Coast, Zia has spent the majority of her career as a touring bass player with several high profile artists, and has shared billing with Sneaky Sound System, Diesel, Katie Noonan, Sarah McCleod, and Vandalism.

Zia's debut single "Underground" peaked at #29 in the ARIA Club Charts and was featured at the Young Hollywood Awards Show in 2011. In 2012 Zia's second single, "City Of Love" was featured in the film Disorientation and garnered considerable airplay across Australia. Her third single, "Looking At You", picked up a gong at the 2013 Australian Independent Music Video Awards.

A sharp piece of urban-infused dance, "Sunshine" is a perfect three-minute summer anthem. "Sunshine" is accompanied by an animated video, which depicts in brilliant line drawings the simple joys of the Sunshine Coast, from the mountains to the ocean and all things in between.

With 3 tracks to the release, "Sunshine" features a radio edit, an Instrumental version and Ring Tone.

"Sunshine is really close to my heart," says Zia. "It's an aural and lyrical expression of my childhood memories from when I was growing up on the Sunshine Coast."

Mixing duties and additional production by Dave Manna, Sydney (ARIA and UK Club Chart regular).

"Sunshine" Official Music Video is an illustration that comes to life with stop-motion cartoon images featuring the beautiful East Australian Coast line and the famed Glasshouse Mountains in the Sunshine Coast Hinterland. The video features people surfing, hang gliding, rock climbing, skateboarding, horse riding, families, fishing, a pineapple, a Koala, a DJ spinning 'beach beats on the beach,' and more!

"Sunshine" music video is directed by Zia with Online production by Stuart Mannion.
